

This letter will serve as a release of all Dana College student-athletes as of July 1, 2010.

Dana College, located in Blair, Nebraska, announced on June 30, 2010, that the institution will cease operations effective immediately.

This letter will serve as a release for the current student-athletes and allows all former Dana athletes to be contacted and recruited by other institutions in all athletic organizations.

Transcripts will be made available to all student-athletes by Dana College for use in the transfer process.
